HELP THE OLD FOLKS.

A Helping Hand Extended to Many Old People in Barre.

Be considerate of the aged. Lend them a helping hand. Make life easy for them. The infirmities of age are many. Most old people have a bad back. The kidneys are weak. Are worn out with years of work. Backache makes days of misery. Urinary troubles nights of unrest. There's a ray of sunshine for the aged. Doan's Kidney Pills will make life easier. They are doing so for old and young. Barre people are learning this. Many are testifying to it. Read the following heart endorsement. William Stephens, stone cutter, of 78 Maple avenue, Barre, Vt., says: "I know that Doan's Kidney Pills are an excellent remedy for those who suffer from backache or kidney trouble. My mother used them off and on for a number of years. She is over eighty years old, and, of course, does not expect to be cured, but she is more than glad to know of a medicine which brings such prompt relief as Doan's Kidney Pills. She always keeps them in the house, and never fails to recommend them to her friends when an opportunity presents itself."

Mrs. Malora Morse went to Stockbridge Friday to spend a few days with her sister.

Mrs. Reuben Whitcomb and Miss Annie Kimball went to New York last week and will continue their journey to Burlington, N. J., to visit friends.

Leslie Amos Sponner and Jennie Hutchinson were married Oct. 1st by Rev. E. F. Felton at the home of Alonzo Sponner on Christian Hill.

Father Penders submitted plans for a new Catholic church last Sunday to his congregation. The church is to be built on the lot on Church street next summer. The plan calls for a building 38 by 70 feet in the main part with a vestibule 10 by 20, and a vestry 14 by 24 feet. Cellar dimensions will be 35 by 81. The tower will be 25 feet above the roof of main building.

The death of Fred Stevens occurred at his home in South Randolph Monday morning. The funeral services were held on Wednesday from his late home and the interment was in Fairview cemetery. Mr. Stevens lived on Christian hill for many years until he moved to Randolph.

E. E. Jenney of Plainfield, N. H., has hired the Young house on South Church street and will take possession soon. Mr. Young expects to leave town soon to join his husband who is in South Carolina.

David Dyke has sold to Austin Harvey his house on South Church street. The latter will take possession as soon as the present tenant can vacate.

J. B. Guilmette and family of Keene, N. H., have arrived in town and taken possession of the Samuel Bowen farm on the Rochester road.

The selectmen have appointed Nelson Pray as special constable and they also employ him as a night watchman to act from 7 in the evening till daylight.

Dr. R. M. Chase is entertaining his brother, Dr. Roscoe Chase, of Ludlow this week, this being his first visit here in the last eight years.

Mrs. Martha Arnold has sold her so-called Reed place on St. Hyacinth street to E. S. Putnam, the house which is at present occupied by Robert Middleton.

The ladies of the Congregational church held their annual sale and fair on the evening of Wednesday which after all bills were paid netted them the net little sum of $150.

Rev. J. Hall Lewis of Panton is in town this week making a transfer of his household articles which were stored here and also calling upon friends.

Miss Lucy Washburn passed a few days at her home, the school in Brookton in which she is teaching is taking a slight vacation during the fair in that city.

Henry W. Savage's version of "The Devil" which was made by arrangement with Franz Molnar, the Hungarian playwright, retains in a remarkable degree the wonderfully effective light and shade of the original. Although the play tells an intensely interesting dramatic story, it is inherently a comedy—often, it must be admitted, a cynical, pungent, sarcastic comedy—but the flashes of wit, the keen satire, the know ledge of human nature which the Devil, in the guise of Dr. Miller, has at the tip of his tongue, keep the audience intermittently bubbling over with laughter. It is this scintillating comedy that brings out the dramatic interest of the play. It is the Savage version of this marvelous dramatic creation which is to be presented here next Thursday evening, October 5 by permission of Mr. Savage and which will be given with a company of equal merit and with a scene investment that duplicates that now running at the Garden Theatre, New York to crowds that nightly tax the capacity of the great play-house.

Had a Close Call.
Mrs. Ada L. Croom, the widely known proprietor of the Croom Hotel, Vaughan, Miss., says: "For several months I suffered with a severe cough, and consumption seemed to have its grip on me, when a friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery.
